Martin Luther King Jr Facts

Michael King Jr. was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia, US.

On July 23, 1957, at 28, he changed his name to Martin Luther King Jr. since the name on his original birth certificate needed to be corrected. He was supposed to be named after his father - Martin Luther.

He was an American Baptist minister and activist.

Also, one of the most prominent leaders in the civil rights movement.

He was the Son of early civil rights activist and minister Martin Luther King Sr.

Martin Luther King Jr Facts

Dr. King fought for equality and human rights for people of color in the United States. He is also well known for his speech, "I Have a Dream," which he delivered during the March in Washington. In it, he said:

"I HAVE A DREAM THAT ONE DAY THIS NATION WILL RISE UP AND LIVE OUT THE TRUE MEANING OF ITS CREED: "WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL."

I HAVE A DREAM

He was highly influenced by Mahatma Gandhi's non-violent approach to protests.

King participated in and led marches for the right to vote, desegregation, labor rights, and other civil rights.

Martin Luther King Jr Facts

In his book, Stride Towards Freedom, King listed down his six principles of non-violence:

- Non-violence is a way of life for courageous people.
- Non-violence seeks to win friendship and understanding.
- Non-violence seeks to defeat injustice, not people.
- Non-violence holds that suffering can educate and transform.
- Non-violence chooses love instead of hate.
- Non-violence believes that the universe is on the side of justice.

King was the youngest person to be awarded the Noble Peace Prize in 1964.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day is a national holiday.

Martin Luther King Jr Facts

He hoped that America and the world could become a society where people are not color blind but color kind.

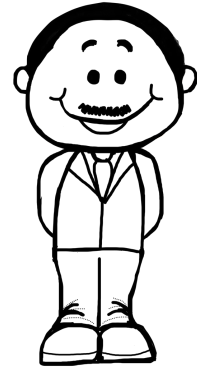

He is often referred to by his initials - MLK

"Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend."
